Crucial Parent Meetings

Dear Parents,

Last month I shared with you that we are currently facing the likelihood of a large budget deficit. As a first step, I asked you to visit certain websites to give positive reviews about your experience at CCA. I am pleased that several of you responded, and we now have updated reports about CCA that parents will see as they search the internet for Christian education options in Columbia.

This month I am calling you to attend Crucial Parent Meetings to continue the conversation about the current financial condition of our beloved school and our vision for the future. Representatives of the C2 Church Board of Directors, Pastor John Battaglia, members of the Christian Chapel Academy School Leadership Team and CCA teachers will join together to share details that will not be available anywhere else. We will explore various ways to meet the challenges before us to ensure the viability of our school.

Please understand these are NOT fundraising meetings. We are coming together for a frank discussion about where we are as a school, where we want to go, and what it takes to get there. We want CCA to thrive in the years ahead, and your participation in this discussion is vital. Your involvement is so important that we have scheduled two sessions of the "State of the School" Vision & Information Meeting for your convenience (RSVP attached).

It is crucial that every current CCA family is represented in these meetings. If you are not able to arrange childcare for your children, please allow one parent to stay home with the children while the other attends the meeting. To allow full discussion of a range of topics, with time for questions and answers, these meetings are not appropriate for children of any age.

I trust the information in this letter is sufficient to convince you of the need to attend the Crucial Parent Meetings. We feel that it is critical that all families receive the same information together, with the opportunity for discussion. Therefore, we request that you do not ask for additional information before the meeting. Please respect our desire to speak with one voice at each gathering.

Please be in prayer for our upcoming meetings. I believe we will sense God's direction as we seek Him and share our hearts with one another.

Sincerely in Christ,

Art Morgan, Principal
