PRINCIPAL'S PERSPECTIVE

To Worship Him

"Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews?

We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him" (Matthew 2:2).

I love the Christmas season. The carols, the programs, the fellowship, the food, the family gatherings, the sharing of gifts—all are part of the commemoration of the greatest event in human history: God became flesh! Merchants and politicians and citizens of many nations mark this event in a variety of ways. It's a time of generosity and good will, marked with prayers for peace on earth.

God, however, desires that we move from commemoration to celebration, recognizing Jesus Christ as the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. He calls us to join the wise men, who embarked on a two-year journey across an inhospitable wilderness to find this King, and to worship him.

As the students have been preparing their songs and memorizing their parts for the Christmas program, they have been learning to worship him. In our chapels and Bible classes and in the many activities and projects that lead up to Christmas, we have been learning to worship him.

As parents and teachers, we are involved in the most vital endeavor on this planet: teaching a new generation to worship him. May God bless you richly at this Christmas season, as you lead your family to worship him.

Sincerely in Christ,

Art Morgan, Principal
